

About us

The professional advisory service for migrants (Beratungsfachdienst für MigrantInnen) is a consulting service which advocates their representation of interest. The Service is being directed by an organized institution named Diakonisches Werk Potsdam e.V. which is commissioned by the Protestant Church. The very center of our work is to help all humankind, fully independently of any statuses of residence, citizenships, religious beliefs, gender, age or ethical beliefs. We support in single cases, support volunteers, offer schoolings and do networking.

Our aims & goals

With the help of migrants, we intend to support migrants and we stand up,

- to help them assert their rights
- to help them seeking/finding a life perspective
- to support them in difficult living circumstances
- to promote equal participation in social life
- independently and with dignity
- to assist them strengthen their independence and responsibilities
- counteracting racist and discriminating tendencies
- to help citizens and institutions to get or deepen a better understanding for the migrants' situation

Our advice is free and confidential. We provide competent, independent and neutral advise. All employees, advisors, language mediators and volunteers are bound to confidentiality.

We advice in German, English, French, Russian and Spanish. For all other relevant languages, especially Arabic and Farsi, we work with language translators.
